KEN DRYDEN FEATURE SPEAKER AT LOYOLA ATHLETIC BANQUET

Ken Dryden, Montreal Canadiens goaltender and former college standout at Cornell University, will be the guest speaker at the Loyola of Montreal Athletic Association Awards Banquet on Friday evening, March 24th. The site of this year's banquet will be the German Social Club, 8675 St. Lawrence Blvd. (corner of St. Lawrence and Metropolitan). Festivities will commence at 8 P.M.

Other honored guests attending the banquet include the Very Reverend Patrick G. Malone, S.J., President of Loyola College, Mr. J.I. Albrecht of the Montreal Alouettes, representing football and Mr. Sam Berger of the Alouettes and the Montreal Olympics representing soccer. Presenting the women's athlete awards will be Ann Heggtveit Hamilton, the winner of Canada's first Gold Medal in Skiing at the 1956 Winter Olympics in Squaw Valley.

The evening will include presentations to intramural as well as to intercollegiate standouts at Loyola. One of the highlights will be the announcement of the male and female Athletes of the Year.

Intramural championships in 1971-72 were held in Badminton, Basketball, Broomball, Football, Hockey, Golf, Tennis, Soccer, Table Tennis, Volleyball and Weightlifting.

This season Loyola's intercollegiate teams won QUAA championships in Soccer, Water Polo and the J.V. squad won the Section "B" title in hockey. Both the Varsity Basketball and Hockey teams won their respective league championships but were upset in the QUAA playoffs.

Tickets for the Awards Banquet are on sale this week at Loyola's Athletic Complex and are available to the public. Prices are $5.00 for those associated with Loyola and $6.00 for the general public.
